

Hurricane of 1906

Lost @ Sea (around Cuba?)

Capt. Edward B Gundersen
(b. 7 Oct 1866 d. Sept 26 1906)

(rd to Anna C. Lindinger)

Any info on obit?

Lucy Jacobson
(169-6884 wk)

The body of a young man was found in Greenwood island Monday morning, but was unrecognizable. Acting Corner Judge Charles E. Chidsey held an inquest Tuesday and buried the body on the spot, the grave being marked for identification. Another body was found at Point aux Chenes. It was that of a middle aged man. The corner's jury had to wade bayous waist deep in order to reach the storm's victims. The shore was strewn with dead pelicans, racoons, pigs and cattle.

The reports from the rural districts are such as to leave the county superintendent of education, Edgar Hull, in doubt whether he has in the whole county a single school house unhurt by the late storm, the effects of which will lay for at least a month the operating of the schools. Superintendent Edgar Hull requests all trustees to report the present condition of school buildings. Among the schools known to be damaged are the following: Zion at Escapwa, Randall's Ferry (col.), Wolf Lake at Three Rivers, Jones and Hamilton at Hurley, East Side, Orange Cove, Franklin Creek, Ramsay, Mount Pleasant, Jeff Havens, Bluff Creek (col.) Vancleave.

Here is a sad story in connection with the storm disaster of last week. Mr. Ed. Vigoureux, with his family, was asleep in his home at Orange Grove, Miss., when he was awakened by the rush of water into the house. Hurriedly arousing his family he picked up his girl by, about 1 year old, and started to swim to shore. In the meanwhile the rest of the people had climbed up into the trees, but with the child in his arms Mr. Vigoureux could not manage to get to a tree, and so had to swim to a place of safety. After battling against the waves for a distance of over half a mile he reached shore, only to find that the child he held in his arms had been drowned as he came through the water.

WIGGIES OF SCRANTON

our goods this season, as les in every department nce. Call and see our

OODS,

AT

IRTS

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. L. E. Cox is visiting his family in New Orleans.

Mr. A. W. H. Wynne, of New Haven, Conn., is staying in our city.

Mr. L. W. Armstrong, of Montaine, visited our city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cohen and infant son Andrew visited New Orleans this week.

Mrs. Frances Wymor, of New Orleans, came Tuesday to the Cottage-by-the-Sea Hotel.

Stevodore L. H. Knibes was storm bound in Mobile. He reached here Tuesday.

Mr. J. J. Myers from Merrill is visiting his family in their new home on Polk street.

Miss Gracie Hutchison, of Alabama was a recent guest of Mrs. William Simms at East Side.

Mr. Jeff Havens, of Vancleave and Mr. Joe Graham, of Brewton were Tuesday business visitors.

Miss Lucille Lewis left Monday for New Orleans to resume her studies at the Sophie Newcomb College.

Mr. R. W. Hamill, of Chicago arrived in our city last week and registered at the Cottage-by-the-Sea Hotel.

Mr. E. C. Joulhan and Attorney W. A. White came over on business the first of the week from Biloxi.

Mr. W. P. Johnson, after a week's visit to his son, Mr. Guy W. Johnson, left Monday for his home in Albion, Nebraska.

Mr. M. M. Moore, of New Orleans was a Sunday guest of his father-in-law, Commodore Henry Gautier at West Pascagoula.

Miss Mamie Kansas, after a few months visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Herrick returned Sunday to her home in New Orleans.

Mr. Frank Matlock, superintendent of the Emily C. Lyon gulf coast timber lands and oyster grounds was a visitor during the week.

Mr. H. F. Smith, bookkeeper of the Farnsworth Lumber Company made the trip last Friday on the L. & N. boat transfer to Biloxi.

Mrs. (Capt.) Ed. Gunderson and sister, Miss Elma Lindinger, who have been recuperating at Castalian Springs returned home Tuesday.

Mr. G. B. Chapman, general superintendent of the Pascagoula Street Railway and Power Company returned Monday from Kentucky, where he spent a short vacation.

Mr. John B. Lindsey, superintendent of the West Pascagoula Creosoting Works returned Monday from a visit to Frankfort and Louisville, Ky., combining business and pleasure.

Miss Willie Chamberlain, after a protracted visit to Mrs. L. H. Knibes, left Thursday for her home in Mobile, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Knibes and little daughter Margaret.

church. It was well attended and all the churches were represented.

The Coast accommodation trains are running on schedule time between New Orleans and Ocean Springs. The interurbans are operating from Bay St Louis to this place.

Willie, son of Mr. George W. Thomas, met with a very unusual and fatal accident from which he died Monday. He was crossing a stile when he fell and a splinter perforated his wind pipe.

The Cumberland telephone service and Biloxi electric light extension will soon be in running order. Our citizens, being without these conveniences since the storm, will now appreciate them.

Recent guests at the Shanahan House were: J. C. Ward, New York; Misses Carrie and Pauline Carpenter, New Orleans; D. D. Peabody, Dubuque, Iowa; A. S. Williams, Chicago; G. B. Chapman, Scranton.

Our little town in common with others on the gulf coast has met with very serious disaster by the recent storm. The losses in monetary value of those engaged in timber and naval stores is probably greater than that of any other class. That of those engaged in maritime pursuits comes next. The Rose Farm was extensively damaged. The Baptist church is an entire wreck, as is also the cottage home of Mrs. C. S. Bell on the Boulevard Farm. The new houses of Mr. Joe Weider, and Wilson Carter, colored, in process of erection were

Paper jumps from
Aug 24 - Oct 5, 1906.
I searched through Oct 19 & only found this small mention of Mrs.
Ed Gunderson.
Sherry

in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup, and can always be relied upon. For sale by McVea Young, Scranton, Miss.